REMARKS.

THIS catalogue embraces the Mezzotintos only from the collection of engravings formed by the late William H. Dougherty, Esq., of Philadelphia, who was one of the best-known collectors of the era in which flourished the late Mr. Claghorn, Mr. Bonfield, Mr. Huneker, and Dr. Koecker. Around this cordon of connoisseurs the collectors of the whole country gathered. Anything in the way of engravings was sure to be first presented to their gaze and option before being offered for sale elsewhere. Consequently, having this advantage, we are not surprised to find so many beautiful examples of the graver's art, many of which are in the earliest state, and which today can only be obtained when a collection like this is scattered. In describing the prints, we have tried to convey a faithful idea of their state and condition, and with the aid of the beautiful facsimiles, think we have in a measure succeeded. Some idea of the value and importance of the collection can be gathered from the fact that the present catalogue includes over two hundred Mezzotintos; and when we take into consideration the growing scarcity of this class of engravings, it should be inducement enough to command the particular attention of all collectors.

The latter part of this and the catalogue to follow embraces the engravings in Line, Stipple and Etching, including fine examples of the most noted masters of the art, of the English, French, Dutch, German, Flemish and Italian schools, incorporating the names of Rembrandt, Drevet, Edelinck, Nanteuil, Sharp, Strange, Desnoyers, Felsing, Morghen, Toschi, Bartolozzi, Bervic and Woollett.
